Springfield offers big amenities — a diverse food scene, concerts, art festivals, and a walkable downtown area. Plus, there are nearly 100 public parks and six lakes within a short drive of campus.

You're only a few hours from Kansas City, St. Louis, Tulsa, Little Rock, Fayetteville, Oklahoma City, Wichita, or Memphis. Springfield-Branson National Airport has 15 nonstop destinations that include Los Angeles, Denver, Atlanta, and Chicago.

There's something special about Drury's campus — majestic trees swaying in the breeze, laughter erupting from sidewalk conversations on Drury Lane, and students gathering around Sunderland Field and the Panther Pad.

Life at Drury is a blend of tradition and energy. What makes Drury different isn't just the beauty of the campus but the people. You'll know your professors, recognize faces wherever you go, and feel connected to a community that celebrates who you are and who you're becoming.

If you're looking for a college that feels like home from day one, welcome to Drury University.

Set Yourself Apart

80+ Programs of Study

At Drury, you'll discover your purpose and prepare for your profession.

Every student graduates with three credentials: one major, one certificate, and a third credential of your choice (major, minor, or certificate), all in 124 credit hours.

These credentials will certify your qualification in each individual subject, equipping you with a valuable combination of knowledge and experience that sets your unique skillset apart.

YOU CAN EXPECT TO:

- Receive a world-class education from accomplished faculty who are invested in your success.
- Gain hands-on experience outside of the classroom through research, internships, community projects, and study abroad opportunities.
- Take classes that align with your personal and professional passions through Fusion, Drury's one-of-a-kind curriculum.

Hands-On Learning

Our professors are teachers, mentors, scholars, and advocates. A Drury professor challenges you through meaningful classroom discussions and personal guidance that extends well past graduation. They'll help you discover, create, and communicate in ways that prepare you for life beyond your time on campus.

At The Robert & Mary Cox Compass Center, you'll work with advisors who help identify your strengths, career interests, and life goals.

At the Compass Center, you'll receive:

- › Academic advising
- › Career planning and development
- › Study abroad guidance
- › Accessibility and disability services
- › Access to tutoring and writing centers

Skills for Success

At Drury, every student graduates with a Drury Skills Transcript. This is a record that links your coursework to marketable skills, making you highly competitive for top jobs and graduate programs. These skills include:

ANH VI

Anh saw how architecture could shape community life while growing up in Vietnam. Her projects — blending sustainability with Vietnam's craft heritage — reflect her vision: architecture that connects people, honors tradition, and creates spaces where communities thrive. She currently works at CJB Architecture and Design in St. Louis.

Own the Traditions

Drury's campus has all the spaces you're looking for to create unforgettable memories. Before you know it, you'll be experiencing college life to the fullest within our 90+ acres.

Your time at Drury will be enriched by the moments that bring our campus community together. From Panther Palooza and Late Night Breakfast to the Final Roar—and even getting to greet President Frederick's dog, Briggs — you'll discover that some of the best memories can only be made at Drury.
